

BOOKMARK INDY

WHERE ~~PEN~~ MEETS PLACE

CRAYON

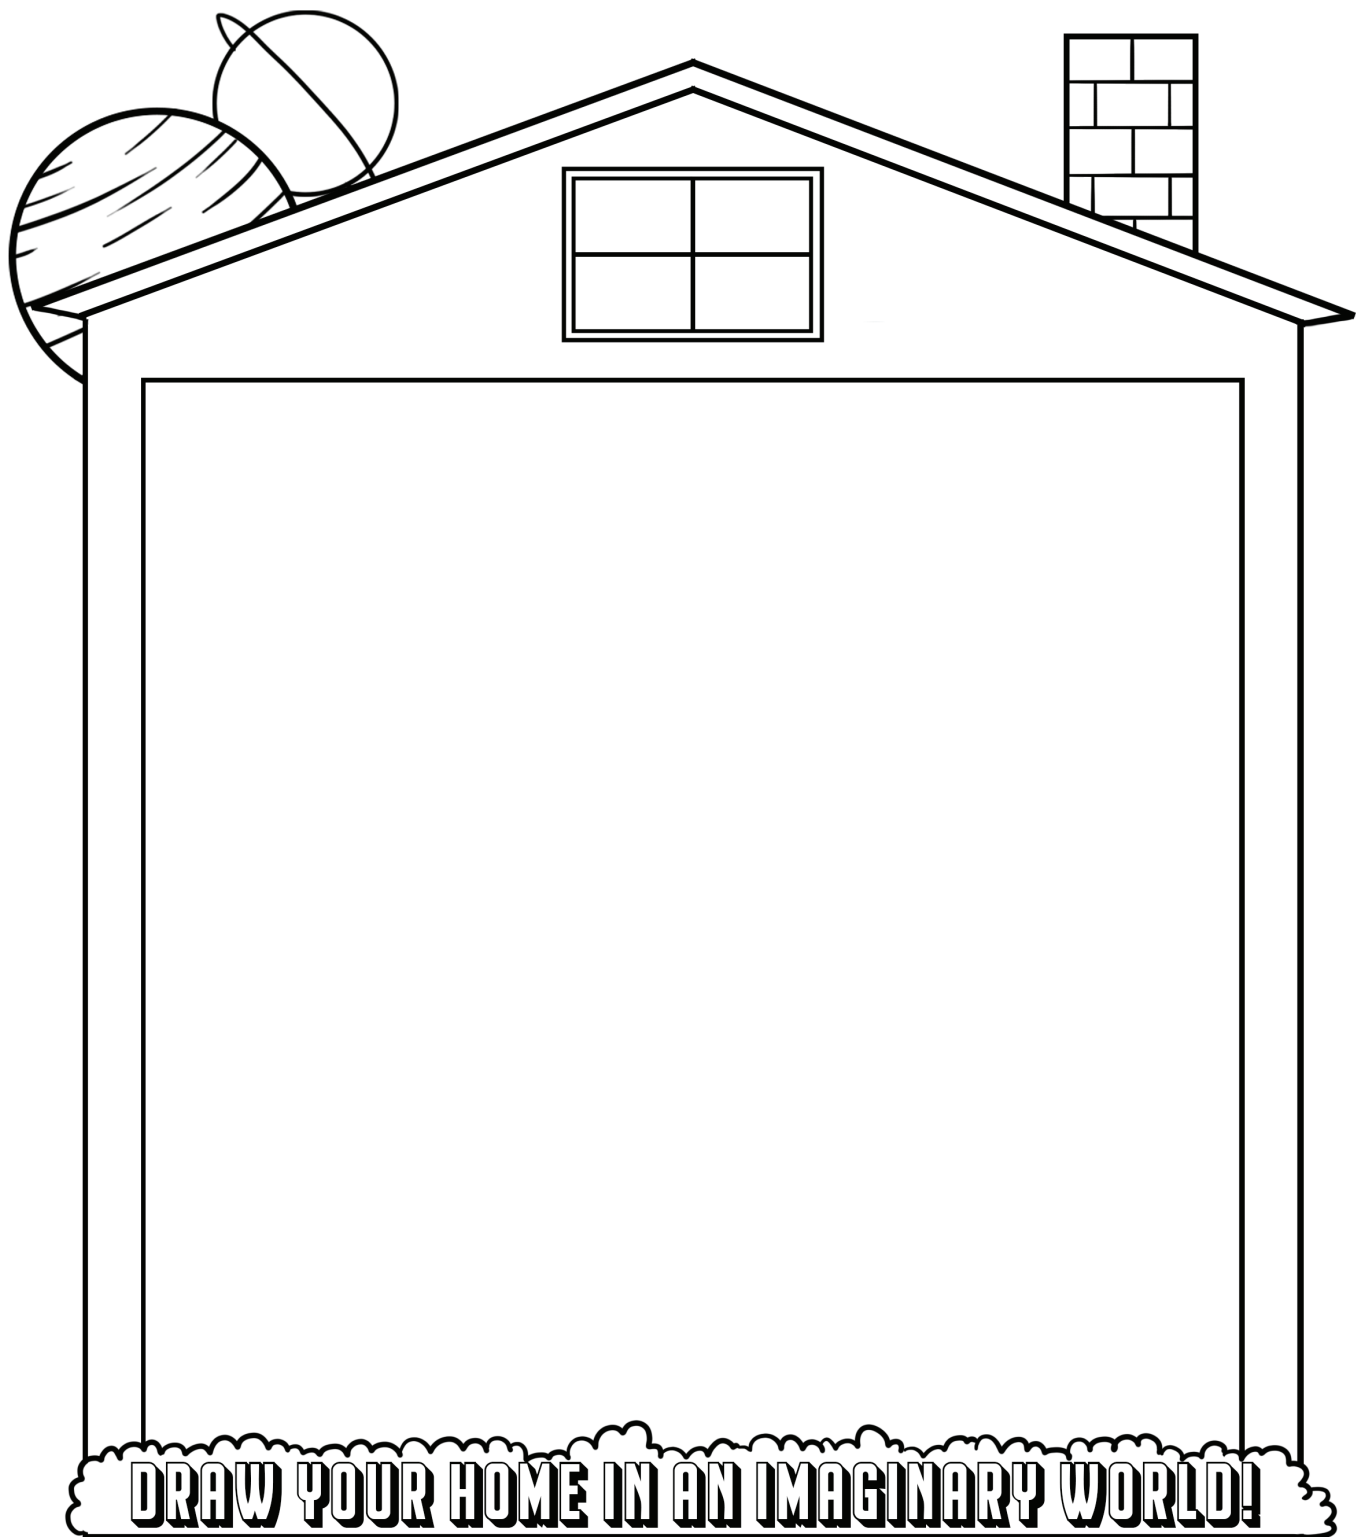

Complete the Bookmark Indy Coloring Challenge by finishing the five tasks below. Each challenge is associated with a Bookmark Indy location. Try and visit all five!

BOOKMARKINDY.COM

Color the Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls.

In 1918 Johnny Gruelle and his publishers released the first book to feature Raggedy Ann. He continued to write stories about Raggedy Ann and her brother, Andy for 20 years afterwards.

Author Maurice Broaddus places Indianapolis into new worlds in his stories. Can you imagine a new world?

BOOKMARK INDY

C. L. Moore was one of the first women to write sci-fi stories. She wrote stories for magazines while living in Indianapolis. Color this magazine cover!

Color in the words
from Mari Evans's
poem
"I Am a Black Woman."

“

am a black woman
tall as a cypress

”

Mari Evans was a very important poet in the Black Arts Movement who lived in Indianapolis.

Can you find rhyming words to these
from Riley's poem "Lockerbie Street"?

day -----

street -----

heart -----

seen -----

James Whitcomb Riley was known as the "Hoosier Poet." One of his most famous poems featured a character named Little Orphant Annie.